About the show

The car show will be held in conjunction with the 3rd Annual Pearl Magnet Comic and Game Convention (PearlCon III). The event is the primary annual fundraiser for the school and is targeted for middle school and high school students. The event is intended to be a day of fun and enjoyment for kids, parents, and the community. Local game stores and comic book stores will be on campus in the Dealers' Room and will be running games, talks, and seminars throughout the day.

Funds raised directly support Daniel Pearl Magnet High School and help supplement a meager budget that only provides for the basic necessities for daily operation. Your entry fee and participation supports the highest-ranking LAUSD High School in the San Fernando Valley.
