CHOP CUT REBUILD

Meet Dan Woods Host of Chop Cut Rebuild

Dan Woods has experienced success as a host, actor, national radio personality, writer, film and Emmy Award nominated television producer.

As a performer, he first became known to audiences world-wide as a stern teacher and eventually the school Principal, in the hit Degrassi television franchises.

In 1997, his work as writer/ producer and host of his own series Classic Car Restorations led to the production of 40 episodes for the US based cable network Speedvision.

In 2003, he renewed his affection for classic cars as the executive producer, creator and host of Chop Cut Rebuild, a documentary and how-to hybrid series, showing the restoration and customization of popular classic cars. In 2011-2012, the series caught the attention of The National Academy Of Television Arts and Sciences, which nominated it as an "Outstanding Lifestyle Program".

Chop Cut Rebuild is now in its 10th successful season on its new home MavTV with over 120 episodes packaged to date.
